The

Beauties of Niel Gow.

To the NOBLEMEN and GENTLEMEN of the CALEDONIAN HUNT.

THE Editor would be wanting in candour and gratitude were he to omit, in presenting this work to the Public, to acknowledge the uniform and marked patronage his Father and Family (himself in particular) have received from the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the Caledonian Hunt, and how much it was owing to their flattering approbation that they were encouraged to make any attempt to add their Compositions to the Stock of National Scottish Music, Composed prior to their time.

It is that approbation which now induces him to offer the present publication under the Title of

THE BEAUTIES OF NIEL GOW.

*Niel Gow's Lamentation for Jas. Moray Esqr. of Abercarney.

Slow and Pathetic.

* Mr. Moray was the early and kind patron of the Author.— The loss which Society sustained in the Death of that Gentleman was the cause of the production of this truly pathetic and beautiful Air.

The above beautiful Air was communicated to the Editor by the late Mr. Stephen Clarke, (Conductor of the Music of Johnson's Museum,) and, at the same time, received its name from our great Poet, Robt. Burns, in compliment to Mr. Alexander Cunningham, Jeweller. The Poet regretted much that its extensive compass prevented its becoming a Vocal Melody, otherwise he would have written Verses worthy of his Friend Cunningham.
